5. [REDACTED] Accompanied [REDACTED]

OER, to a meeting with Dorothy Fosdick and Richard Perle, Permanent Investigating Subcommittee staff of Senate Government Operations Committee.

25X1A

The briefing followed the outline set forth in [REDACTED] memo of 24 May concerning Soviet fertilizer plants, Syberian gas fields, the use of forced labor, Syberian gas reserves, Soviet oil coming into the United States, and changes in Soviet immigration policies. Perle asked if any of the intelligence studies utilized as background for the briefing could be made available for the Committee or for study by the staff. I advised Perle and Miss Fosdick the studies are not available but that certain portions of statistical material particularly relating to gas and oil reserves, etc. which have been outlined by [REDACTED] can be broken out and provided on a nonattributable basis.

These briefings, in essence, serve the purpose of getting the information developed in the various studies into the hands of appropriate committees and members on a timely basis. The statement was accepted without question.

As a followup it was requested that a briefing be provided for Chairman Jackson's information on Soviet forced labor installations, locations, and population. [REDACTED] D/OBGI, has been advised.

6. [REDACTED] In a chance meeting with Robert Blum, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, he told me that he had talked to Charles Savage, Staff Assistant for Archives, as a followup to his conversation with me concerning the Agency pilot project on review and declassification of OSS documents and was surprised to learn that the material at Archives is limited to R&A documents from the Department of State. I told Blum I would look further into this matter and be back in touch with him the first of the week.

7. [REDACTED] Met with William Hogan, House Armed Services Committee staff, and picked up from him two copies of the hearings of 24 May for review and return to the Committee. Hogan told me for our information only that Pat Gray will be appearing before the Committee tomorrow and that Haldeman and Ehrlichman have been tentatively scheduled for 7 and 13 June respectively. With regard to the material to be submitted by [REDACTED] Secretary to General Walters, he asked if she would address herself to the question raised by the Chairman concerning General Walters' initials appearing on some memorandums and not on others.
